Biographie

(Disponible en anglais seulement)

Carolyn Inglis is a member of Miller Thomson's Corporate Tax, Private Client and M&A groups. Her areas of focus are corporate and personal tax planning, tax-efficient corporate transactions and reorganizations, mergers and acquisitions of private corporations, tax dispute resolution, and private client services.

Carolyn has completed her LL.M. in Taxation at Osgoode Hall Law School (York University) in 2019. She has also completed the CPA In-Depth Tax Course as well as CBA Tax Law for Lawyers.

Before joining Miller Thomson, Carolyn articulated and practiced at a boutique tax firm in Calgary where she worked closely with a wide range of clients to achieve their goals. She has appeared in front of the Tax Court of Canada as well as the Provincial Court of Alberta and the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench.
