Biographie

(Disponible en anglais seulement)

Jack Masterman has a broad litigation practice with a focus on commercial disputes, construction litigation, real property disputes, and employment matters.

Jack is an experienced litigator. He has represented clients in: arbitrations, Superior Court, Divisional Court, the Court of Appeal, and administrative tribunals.

Jack provides pragmatic counsel to a variety of clients, including businesses, municipalities, owners, general contractors, subcontractors, and individuals. He has represented clients on a range of matters, inclusive of: shareholder disputes, contract disputes, debt collection, construction lien and trust claims, delay claims, wrongful dismissal, franchise disputes, and injunctive relief.

Jack received his Juris Doctorate from the University of New Brunswick in 2014, where he received numerous awards for academic achievement. Before studying law, Jack obtained his M.A. from Wilfrid Laurier University. He also taught kindergarten students at an academy in South Korea and planted trees in Northern Ontario and Alberta for four summers. In his spare time he enjoys sports, literature and travelling.
